

You are cordially invited to
St Andrew's Church, Coniston
To reaffirm your wedding vows and set a new world record
On
Saturday 8th February 2014
At
4.30 pm – 5.30 pm

As well as celebrating marriage we are joining in with a World Record breaking attempt for the largest number of couples saying their marriage vows together. Tim Harmer, Vicar and Registrar, will be conducting the attempt at the World Record along with many other churches. He will be saying his vows to June. Please bring with you your Marriage Certificate and any guests you wish to invite. Fizz and cake will be served after the service.

Please contact Tim & June on 015394 41171. We will send you a Registration Form. We need over 25 couples to take part for the record.
